

Ramsay Research Month Three Minute Video Competition Judging Criteria

All eligible Video submissions will be assessed on the content, clarity of communication, and the quality of the information conveyed.

The Judging Panel will score the Video submission against the following criteria, with a maximum of 5 points per criterion for a total score out of 20:

	1 point	2 points	3 points	4 points	5 points
Research design and findings	The Video does not describe the research strategy, design, or findings at all.	The Video inadequately describes the research strategy, design, or findings, lacking clarity.	The Video provides a basic description of the research strategy, design, and findings.	The Video clearly describes the research strategy, design, and findings.	The Video excellently describes the research strategy, design, and findings in a detailed and clear manner.
Impact on healthcare practices or patient outcomes	The Video does not discuss the impact on healthcare practices or patient outcomes.	The Video briefly touches on the impact but lacks depth or clarity.	The Video provides a general idea of the impact on healthcare practices or patient outcomes.	The Video clearly describes the impact on healthcare practices or patient outcomes.	The Video excellently demonstrates the significant impact on healthcare practices or patient outcomes.
Accessibility to a cross-disciplinary audience	The Video is not accessible or understandable to a cross-disciplinary audience at all.	The Video is somewhat challenging for a cross-disciplinary audience to understand.	The Video is moderately accessible to a cross-disciplinary audience.	The Video is accessible and understandable to a cross-disciplinary audience.	The Video is highly accessible and engaging for a cross-disciplinary audience.
Engagement	The Video is not engaging and fails to capture attention.	The Video has minimal engagement and struggles to maintain interest.	The Video is somewhat engaging but lacks consistent interest.	The Video is engaging and successfully maintains interest.	The Video is highly engaging and captivates the audience throughout.